3. All churches which are members of Associations in voluntary fellowship with and recognized by the Conference, whether or not such churches are a part of the United Church of Christ, are entitled to elect voting members of the Conference in accordance with these Bylaws.
4. Whenever in these Bylaws the word "Area" is used, it shall be held to refer to those Associations or combinations of the Associations decided upon by the agreement of the respective Associations and recognized by the Conference.

ARTICLE II

DENOMINATIONAL BASIS

■ Appendix A - RESOLUTION ON SANCTUARY

WHEREAS our faith is grounded in God who demands justice and calls us to show love for our neighbors, and

WHEREAS the Judeo-Christian faith was born in the travail of escape as Yahweh commanded Moses to set aside cities and places of refuge in Canaan where people could seek asylum from the "blood avengers," cities of refuge which were for the Israelites "as well as the stranger and sojourner among you." (Num. 35:15); and

WHEREAS God was remembered as the one who brought us out of the bondage of Egypt (Ex. 20:2), and God's identity was rooted in action and proclaimed in the verbs of struggle: leading, delivering, freeing; and

WHEREAS the Refugee Act of 1980 states that a refugee qualifies for political asylum in the U.S. if it can be established that he or she: "owing to a well-founded fear of persecution for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country"; and

WHEREAS the United States is a signatory to the United Nations Convention relating to the status of refugees which states, "No contracting state shall expel or return a refugee in any matter whatsoever to the frontiers of territories where his life or freedom would be threatened on account of his race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group, or public opinion"; and

WHEREAS refugees from El Salvador and Guatemala are fleeing to the United States to escape persecution, murder and civil war; and

WHEREAS the United States Government has refused to grant refugee status to Salvadorans and Guatemalans, contrary to the definition of "refugee" stated in the U.N. Convention and Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees of 1977, signed by the United States and adopted by the U.S. Congress in the Refugee Act of 1980; and

WHEREAS in our country, large numbers of Salvadorans and Guatemalans are arrested, confined for extended periods of time, returned to their homelands where their welfare and lives are further threatened, or forced to live "underground"; and

WHEREAS The Fourteenth General Synod of the United Church of Christ voted to issue "an immediate call to all pastors and congregations urging an active advocacy campaign to call upon the United States Government to grant to El Salvadoran and Guatemalan nationals seeking refuge in our country the privilege of (extended voluntary departure status) until they can return home with a reasonable degree of safety.

"The Fourteenth General Synod applauds those congregations granting sanctuary to El Salvadorans and Guatemalans and encourages all our congregations to consider providing sanctuary until such time as extended voluntary departure status is granted"; and (Extended Voluntary Departure is a legal category in the Immigration and Naturalization Act granting temporary asylum to foreign nationals caught outside their country during times of strife. The State Department suspends this status as soon as these nationals can return home safely.)

WHEREAS the Conference Ministers throughout the United Church of Christ stated in February, 1985:

"We hold in our hearts and cherish the oppressed of every land; the people of South Africa and Afghanistan, Ethiopia and the Philippines, Poland and Korea, Chile and Peru and in the United States, for we believe that, wherever human rights are denied and the human spirit is crushed, Jesus Christ is denied and the Gospel despised.

"During these days together, we have been stunned by eyewitness accounts of the violence being done to the church in Central America and by the message on the lips of trusted friends telling of misery, fear and heavy burdens that have become the common experience of people in that part of the world."

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ joins with the United Church of Christ Conference Ministers and calls upon congregations to

1. "Explore the Biblical concept of sanctuary and the historic place of the United States as a 'safe and propitious asylum for the unfortunates of other countries' (George Washington);
2. "Support with your prayers and, if possible, with your gifts those congregations and individuals engaged in non-violent civil disobedience; those who risk penalties by offering shelter, refuge and a home to those fleeing the violence of the world;
3. "Urgently and prayerfully consider participating in the 'sanctuary movement'."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Council for Mission Outreach and Social Responsibility be instructed to communicate this action of the Annual Meeting to the appropriate state and national bodies and provide appropriate resources for the above study and action.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges the U.S. government to grant to El Salvadoran and Guatemalan nationals seeking refuge in our country the privilege of "extended voluntary departure status" until they can return home with a reasonable degree of safety.

▪ Appendix B - RESOLUTION ON SOUTH AFRICA

WHEREAS the 176th Annual Meeting of the MACUCC in 1975 stated, "We as Christians reaffirm the love of God between all people, assert the right of each person to justice and realize that peace by repression is not the true peace of Jesus, and, as the Body of Christ, continue to deplore the dehumanizing effects of apartheid, realizing that 'liberation of one particular group of people can be authentic only insofar as it includes freedom for the others' (Moltmann)"; and

WHEREAS the 177th Annual Meeting of the MACUCC in 1976 voted to "intensify efforts to bring the moral and financial leverage of the church to bear on corporations to work in South Africa for effective reform of present injustice"; and

WHEREAS, after many years of struggle, the 178th Annual Meeting of the MACUCC in 1977 voted:

"The apartheid policies of the White minority government of the Republic of South Africa are supported and in truth encouraged by the continual presence of United States businesses and corporations. Those corporations should cease operations and withdraw from the Republic of South Africa until the time when there is a majority government chosen by the people of South Africa in free elections.

WE THEREFORE URGE that individuals, churches, conferences, and instrumentalities exert moral pressure on United States corporations and businesses to withdraw from the Republic of South Africa and to take all actions necessary to achieve this goal. In the event that withdrawal is not accomplished, we as individuals and as a corporate church shall continue to reap the financial and material benefits accruing from the physical and spiritual misery of the majority of South Africans who are Black and Coloured."; and

WHEREAS "The World Alliance of Reformed Churches, in which the United Church of Christ is a member, in its June, 1982 meeting in Ottawa, Canada declared apartheid a "theological heresy,...a travesty of the gospel...in the persistent disobedience to the Word of God"; and

WHEREAS the political situation is deteriorating in South Africa. The government has responded brutally to protests against the new constitution which denies Blacks, who constitute 72 per cent of the population, the rights of citizenship, voting, and political representation, killing several hundred unarmed civilians. The government also has accelerated the forced removals of Blacks from urban areas to the desolate so-called homelands. When Black workers in November, 1984 staged a mass strike in the key industrial areas around Johannesburg, the government detained leaders of the stayaway. The government continues to harass religious leaders such as Bishop Desmond Tutu, 1984 Nobel Prize laureate and Anglican bishop of Johannesburg; Allan Boesak, President of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches, and Archbishop Dennis Hurley, Archbishop of Durban and President of the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference; and

WHEREAS Bishop Desmond Tutu has said, "Those who invest in South Africa invest in a system which we have described as being evil, as unchristian as Nazism ever was. They invest in a system that depends on Black misery and suffering."

Bishop Desmond Tutu in January, 1985 once again called for political, diplomatic, but above all, economic pressure on South Africa as the last chance to avert the blood bath; and

WHEREAS in consultation with ecumenical partners, the Directors of the United Church Board for World Ministries in November, 1984 adopted guidelines and criteria to determine which corporations operating in South Africa should be considered supportive of the apartheid system and, therefore, candidates for divestment. This policy now has been adopted by other denominations, and there is likely to be an ecumenical coalition cooperatively evaluating corporate operations, pressuring corporations to change policies, and pursuing divestment when such efforts are unsuccessful;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ supports the following United Church Board of World Ministries resolution on South Africa related to the 15th General Synod:

Minutes

That the United Church Board of World Ministries Board of Directors, in view of the escalating repression in South Africa, refusal of the apartheid regime to commence significant political change, and requests from South African church leaders to undertake significant forms of economic pressure in this critical period to avert a major blood-bath:

1. "Commits the United Church Board for World Ministries to a principle of full divestment from corporations with direct investments in South Africa and banks and other financial services institutions engaging in loans, credits, or services to the government of South Africa or its instrumentalities or agencies or making loans to the private sector for the provision of products, services, or technology that maintain the apartheid system.
2. Supports the adoption of a pronouncement and proposal for action at the Fifteenth General Synod advocating full divestment."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ:

1. Reaffirms its continued solidarity with all of the people of South Africa who are in the pursuit of freedom, justice, and political rights;
2. Requests that all members of the United Church of Christ remember the people of South Africa in their prayers; and
3. Calls upon members of the United Church of Christ to actively participate in the anti-apartheid struggle as an urgent matter of Christian conscience. To that end, it asks that members of the United Church of Christ:
 - A. Refrain from purchasing Krugerrands, the South African gold coin;
 - B. Participate in vigils and demonstrations against the apartheid system;
 - C. Support legislation that would impose restriction on U.S. economic investment in and trade with South Africa;
4. Urges that all congregations participate in the anti-apartheid struggle through:
 - A. Providing educational and action programs to members and their community on the situation in South Africa;
 - B. Placing signs which state 'Free South Africa' on their grounds;
 - C. Remembering the people of South Africa and their problems in corporate prayers.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ recommend to the Congregational Fund investment policies consistent with the action of the United Church Board for World Ministries, these guidelines be followed, and request a report on investment actions taken.

The 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference commends the following resolution to the 15th General Synod for adoption:

Proposal for Action: Empowering Laity for Ministry

Background: The following PROPOSAL FOR ACTION seeks to assist in the further implementation of the Pronouncement: EMPOWERING THE LAITY FOR MINISTRY, which was introduced and adopted by the 13th General Synod meeting in Rochester, N.Y. in 1981. Original sponsors of the Pronouncement included the Eastern North Carolina Association, the Western North Carolina Association, the Eastern Virginia Association, and the Board of Directors of the Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ. This PROPOSAL FOR ACTION is being recommended to the 15th General Synod by the Church Life and Leadership Commission, the Board of Directors of the Southern Conference, and the Eastern North Carolina Association.

Summary: This PROPOSAL FOR ACTION, like the Pronouncement upon which it is based, affirms the concept of ministry as the calling for all people of God (the laos). "Ministry" is defined as service to others in the name of Christ through the use of one's gifts in response to the Holy Spirit. It embraces an understanding of ministry that can find expression and be carried on within, through, and beyond the programs and activities of the institutional church. It seeks to draw out the fuller range of implications for the life and mission of the United Church of Christ stemming from the Pronouncement.

The Call to Action:

WHEREAS the 13th General Synod of the United Church of Christ has adopted the Pronouncement entitled "Empowering the Laity for Ministry"; and

WHEREAS that Pronouncement includes a "Statement of Christian Conviction" which calls upon the United Church of Christ and all its related institutions to "at once" begin examining many fundamental issues related to ministry;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 15th General Synod of the United Church of Christ:

1. Calls upon the Office for Church Life and Leadership to commission a major theological study for use by local congregations. The study shall address:

*The biblical and historical foundation for affirming the ministry of the laity and its theological implications,

*The doctrine of the Priesthood of all believers as interpreted by its present day ecclesiastical and mission significance,

*The implications of the ministry of the laity for theological education including approaches, curricula, and training experiences, and

*Those forces which enable and block empowering of the ministry of the laity within the life of the church. This shall include, but not be limited to, problems related to language, traditional doctrine, polity, practice, and structure within the life and work of the United Church of Christ;

2. Calls upon the Office for Church Life and Leadership in consultation with the Division of Christian Education of the Board for Homeland Ministries and the Association of the United Church Educators and other instrumentalities as appropriate, to develop resources and consultative services which shall assist local congregations in:

*Educational programs and consciousness-raising events,

*The use of materials to help laity identify their God-given gifts for ministry,

*Helping laity identify and claim specific calls to ministry,

*Assisting laity to design and plan their ministries,

*Providing a means of recognizing, supporting, and then being accountable for, the ministries undertaken, and

*Developing ways of meeting the requirements for specific ministerial skills;

3. Calls upon local and regional structures of the United Church of Christ to commit themselves to enable the whole people of God to be in ministry and to communicate such needs and resources as they have for doing so to the appropriate national judicatories;

4. Calls upon the Office for Church Life and Leadership and all UCC-related theological schools to offer opportunities to laity for study and reflection which would help to inform their ministries and to develop their skills and effectiveness;

5. Calls upon the Office for Church Life and Leadership to examine thoroughly current issues of clergy crisis, burnout among church leadership, multiple role expectations and demands, and forms of clergy/lay conflicts in the context of mutual ministry between clergy/laity (exploring the role of spiritual disciplines and of support groups in relation to sustaining both in ministry);

6. Calls upon the Office for Church Life and Leadership to examine within the UCC, other denominations, and ecumenical movements successful models of faith renewal and development and lay empowerment as they relate to the above-mentioned Pronouncement and adapt them for use within the UCC;

7. Calls upon the Office for Church Life and Leadership to give a progress report of its activities in implementing this PROPOSAL FOR ACTION to the 16th General Synod;

8. Calls upon the Office of Communication to feature articles and stories related to the empowerment of the laity for ministry;

9. Calls upon the Stewardship Council to emphasize the stewardship of one's gifts for ministry as well as one's financial resources and to put special emphasis on investment of local church resources in the preparation of the laity for ministries in, through, and beyond the institutional church setting; and

10. Calls upon all local congregations, regional judicatories, and national instrumentalities of the United Church of Christ to affirm, celebrate, and seek ways to enable the ministries of the whole people of God to be at all levels of the church's life and mission.

* Appendix D - RESOLUTION ON ARMS CONTROL NEGOTIATIONS AND AMERICAN-SOVIET DIALOGUE

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ, through its General Synod and through the Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference, has urged arms reduction by both the U.S.S.R. and the U.S.A., in obedience to the biblical instruction to "beat swords into plowshares"; and

WHEREAS in votes since 1980, citizens of the U.S. have polled large majorities favoring negotiation of a joint, verifiable freeze on nuclear weapons; and

WHEREAS the administration of President Reagan in 1984 began a process of negotiation with representatives of the U.S.S.R. to control and reduce armaments of the two countries;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ reaffirms support for all responsible attempts to negotiate reduction of armaments and urges that the negotiations be assisted by new efforts to cultivate friendly exchange and dialogue between the two countries in a wide variety of areas, including both government and private efforts.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution be communicated to the President and the U.S. Senators from Massachusetts and that the Conference, Associations, and churches of the United Church of Christ in Massachusetts be urged to find ways to support and take part in programs of exchange.

* Appendix E - GUIDELINES FOR CLERGY COMPENSATION 1986

The 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, commends the effort of the local churches in endeavoring to reach the goals recommended in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation 1985.

Minutes

The 186th Annual Meeting recommends:

1. that churches pay a minimum salary of $15,000 for a full-time pastor;
2. that churches not at the new minimum salary work toward the minimum and also at improving C, D, E, and F below;
3. that churches already at or above the new minimum and also providing for C through F give at least a cost-of-living increase.

(PLEASE NOTE that these abbreviated guidelines are designed to be used in conjunction with Guidelines for Clergy Compensation booklet from the Conference office.)

A. CONSIDERATIONS FOR DETERMINING CLERGY COMPENSATION:

While the ministry is a unique profession requiring special patterns of financial compensation, several overall factors can be considered in determining the level of support for clergy. The total compensation package could justly be comparable to the median income of the parish and perhaps be on a par with that of the local high school principal, showing consideration for years of service and special skills and training and including annual cost-of-living increases. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy and the compensation package can be designated in a way to maximize the pastor's income.

B. CASH SALARY:

The cash salary (not including housing and other expenses) ought to be no less than $15,000 for a full-time person in ordained ministry; less than $15,000 would indicate a person called to part-time work. This is a modest increase of approximately 3.5% over the minimum voted for 1984.

C. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE:

The church, as an employer, should provide an amount equal to at least one-half of the self-employment SS tax of 14%; such an allowance would be taxable income but would ease the burden of the big SS tax bite.

*D. HOUSING THAT PROVIDES:

- (1) a furnishings allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan for those living in a parsonage; OR
- (2) a housing allowance for those who want to rent or own their homes.

E. BENEFITS SHOULD INCLUDE:

- (1) a pension plan, with a church contribution of 14% of salary basis, which is (a) at least 130% of cash salary plus any furnishings allowance for those living in a parsonage or (b) cash salary plus housing allowance for those with such allowance;
- (2) a family protection plan, including disability insurance, which is an additional 1% of the base used for the annuity;
- (3) group life insurance, which costs $50 per year;
- (4) medical and health insurance, plus dental care, as provided through the United Church of Christ (e.g. $3030 in 1985 per family or $1515 for single);
- (5) continuing education funding;
- (6) sabbatical education funding;
- (7) holiday and vacation time;

Minutes

(8) maternity/paternity paid leave.

F. ALL PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES:

These expenses are the cost of "doing business" for the church and should be paid directly or fully reimbursed and not considered salary. Included are:

- (1) books, professional subscriptions;
- (2) professional memberships;
- (3) travel expenses and car allowance (church-owned car or travel reimbursement);
- (4) any other expenses incurred by the pastor and directly attributable to the exercise of ministry.

2 According to the IRS, "housing" includes furnishings and the miscellaneous running expenses (everything except food and maid service) of a home, including appurtenances such as a garage, sidewalks, front and back yards.

* For detailed explanation, see Housing for Clergy, Manfred Holck, Jr., Church Management Inc., P.O. Box 1625, Austin, TX 78767.

* Appendix F - RESOLUTION ON ECONOMIC JUSTICE

WHEREAS the Bible asserts the importance of economic justice and affirms that the justice of a community is measured by that community's treatment of the powerless:

Give justice to the weak and the fatherless: maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute. Rescue the weak and the needy: deliver them from the hand of the wicked. (Psalm 82:3-4)

Come, O blessed of [God], inherit the realm prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you came to me, I was in prison and you came to me.

Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my sisters and brothers, you did it to me. (Matthew 25:34-36, 40b);

WHEREAS in 1984, the 185th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ reaffirmed its commitment to economic justice by adopting the Resolution on Peace with Economic Justice (vote 84-AM-13); and

WHEREAS in 1983, the 14th General Synod of the United Church of Christ established an "Economics and Theology Covenant Group" which is presently drafting a study document intended as an invitation to discuss and debate the issue of faith and economics; and

WHEREAS the United States Roman Catholic bishops have already drawn up a first draft (dated November 11, 1984) of a "Pastoral Letter on Catholic Social Teaching and the U.S. Economy" (copies available for $3.50 from Origins, United States Catholic Conference, 1312 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20005), and Dr. Avery Post, President of the United Church of Christ has commended that pastoral letter to the United Church of Christ for study.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ affirms the following assertions of the Catholic bishops' Pastoral Letter (numbers in brackets refer to paragraphs of that letter):

"Three priority principles should shape our economic policies and institutions both domestically and internationally:" [Outline]

Minutes

First: "The fulfillment of the basic needs of the poor is of the highest priority. Our society has to consider goals such as productivity and economic efficiency, but not to the further detriment of the disadvantaged of our world. This evaluation of decision, policies, and institutions primarily in light of their impact on the poor constitutes the 'preferential option for the poor' which flows from biblical faith." [103]

This support of private ownership does not mean that any individual, group, organization or nation has the right to unlimited accumulation of wealth. Especially when there are so many needy people in our world, the right to own must bow to the higher principles of stewardship and the common use of the goods of creation. There is a 'social mortgage' on private property which implies that private property does not constitute for anyone an absolute or unconditioned right. No one is justified in keeping for his exclusive use what he does not need, when others lack necessities.' In our increasingly complex economy, true stewardship may also sometimes demand that the right to own cede to public involvement in the planning or ownership of certain sectors of the economy. The church's teaching opposes collectivist and statist economic approaches. But it also resists the notion that an unimpeded market automatically produces justice.

"We propose here certain necessary elements for a national strategy to deal with poverty...

1. A key element in removing poverty is prevention through a healthy economy....
2. Vigorous action should be undertaken to remove barriers to full and equal employment for women and minorities...
3. Reforms in the tax systems should be implemented that would reduce the burden on the poor....
4. Government programs and policies should stimulate and foster self-help programs among the poor....
5. Schools should adopt policies leading to higher quality education for poor children....
6. Improved child-care services should be made available to working parents." [208-216]

"Americans have a tendency to blame poverty on laziness, to stigmatize welfare recipients, to exaggerate the benefits actually received by the poor, and to overstate the extent of fraud in welfare payments....We strongly recommend that the United States undertake a thorough reform of the welfare and income support programs. Building on our earlier discussion of moral principles, we propose six guidelines for that effort.

1. Public assistance programs should be adequately funded and provide recipients with decent support....
2. The United States should establish national eligibility standards and a national minimum benefit level for public assistance programs....
3. Public assistance programs should strengthen, rather than weaken, marriage and the family....
4. Within the limits just stated, public assistance programs should encourage, rather than penalize, gainful employment....
5. The design of public assistance programs should involve the participation of the recipient population and avoid or minimize stigma to clients....
6. The administration of public assistance programs should show respect for clients." [222. 226-238]

"Voluntary action to overcome the wounds of injustice through almsgiving, sharing possessions, hospitality, and other forms of charitable assistance is part of the Christian vocation and the duty of all human beings. Such acts of charity are, at their best, attempts to heal the pain which injustice causes. But all have a larger responsibility to remove the causes of this injustice in the community....The works of charity cannot and should not have to substitute for humane public policy." [123. 124. 208]....

Minutes

The second priority principle is that "increased participation for the marginalized takes priority over the preservation of privileged concentrations of power, wealth, and income." [104]

"Efforts to generate employment should be aimed specifically at bringing marginalized persons into the labor force; should give priority to long term jobs; should produce goods and services needed by society; should be as economically efficient as possible; and should include both the private and public sectors." [Outline]

"The Church fully supports the right of workers to form unions or other associations to secure their rights to fair wages and working conditions....Along with these rights of workers and unions go a number of important responsibilities....They must not use their collective power to press demands whose fulfillment would damage the rights of others....Racial and sexual discrimination has sometimes marred the exercise of power by the U.S. trade unions. Organized labor has an important responsibility to work positively toward eliminating the effects of the injustice this discrimination has caused." [111. 113]

"The degree of well-being which society enjoys today would be unthinkable without the dynamic figure of the business-person, whose function consists of organizing human labor and services necessary for the prosperity and progress of the community. The rights and responsibilities of persons engaged in business and finance flow from the dual necessity of both protecting their freedom to make these contributions and ensuring that this freedom is accountable to the norms of justice and the common good of society....The work of business people, managers, investors, and financiers is a genuine Christian vocation when carried out as a form of stewardship." [115. 122]

"We want to suggest several specific policy objectives which hold promise of improving the employment picture in the United States....

1. We recommend that the nation make a major new policy commitment to achieve full employment....
2. We recommend increased support by the government for direct job creation programs targeted on the structurally unemployed....
3. We recommend expansion of apprenticeship and job training programs in the private sector which are administered and supported jointly by business, labor unions, and government....
4. We recommend the formation of local, state, and national coalitions to press for the design and implementation of job creation strategies....
5. We recommend improvement and expansion of job placement services on both the local and national level." [178-185]

"Whatever the difficulties, the need for assistance to the developing world is undeniable....The relationship between expenditures on armaments and on development points to a massive distortion of resources....Rather than promoting U.S. arms sales to countries that cannot afford them, we should be campaigning for an international agreement to reduce this lethal trade." [307. 314]

The third priority principle is that "meeting human needs and increasing participation should be priority targets in the investment of wealth, talent, and human energy...This principle presents a strong moral challenge to policies that put large amounts of talent and capital into the production of luxury consumer goods and military technology while failing to invest sufficiently in education, in the basic infrastructure of our society, or in economic sectors that produce the jobs, goods, and services that we urgently need." [105]

Minutes

"The founders of our nation...launched an experiment in the protection of civil and political rights that has prospered through the efforts of those who came after them. We believe the time has come for a similar experiment in economic democracy: the creation of an order that guarantees the minimum conditions of human dignity in the economic sphere for every person...All persons really do have rights in the economic sphere and...society has a moral obligation to take the necessary steps to ensure that no one among us is hungry, homeless, unemployed, or otherwise denied what is necessary to live with dignity." [89. 86]

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ communicate this resolution both to the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, and to the United Church of Christ "Economics and Theology Covenant Group" as input for the study document which that Covenant Group is preparing;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ direct the Racism and Economic Justice Task Force of the Council for Mission Outreach and Social Responsibility to conduct at least five hearings throughout the state to listen to and engage in dialogue with the churches and community concerns about economics and justice which emerge from the Bishops' Pastoral Letter, the "Economics and Theology Covenant Group" of the UCC, and other related documents. The data and recommendations from these hearings will be compiled and presented in plenary at the 187th Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ remind all churches that the goals of this resolution cannot be achieved by human effort alone. Churches and members are urged to seek spiritual renewal as preparation for working toward economic justice.

* Appendix G - RESOLUTION ON "A JUST PEACE"

WHEREAS we are all called to be peacemakers and there can be no lasting peace without justice; and

WHEREAS the Bible presents us with the vision of shalom, linking peace with justice; and

WHEREAS the apostle Paul looks to the church as "first fruits of God's gift of grace and Peace," challenging the church to prepare the way for a larger transformation of all creation into shalom; and

WHEREAS peace is inextricably tied to justice and can only be realized in an atmosphere of equity in which power is shared; and

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ has been for many years in the forefront of advocacy for peace and justice; and

WHEREAS the theology paper "A Just Peace" has been drafted for study and response;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ

1. Affirms the work of the peace theology development team of the UCC;
2. Encourages further efforts made towards the UCC becoming a church committed to peace with justice;
3. Affirms the continuation of Peace With Justice as a priority of the UCC.
4. Encourages individual members and groups within UCC congregations to read and discuss "A Just Peace";

Minutes

5. Recommends that all member bodies (Conference, Associations, and local churches) incorporate Peace with Justice into the life of its organization, recognizing it as integral to the faith and necessary to the life of the church.

▪ Appendix H - RESOLUTION ON PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCING

WHEREAS the Old Testament teaches us that healing in the community must involve a restitution for evil done (Exodus 22:5-6); and

WHEREAS Jesus cared for all people, including the sick, the poor, the foreign Samaritan, the self-destructive prodigal son, and even the tax collector, considered to be a menace to the financial health of the community; and

WHEREAS as Christians, we are called to be concerned about a situation in which, in the midst of great prosperity, low-income people are refused Medicaid benefits, the infant death rate soars, and homeless people walk the streets, and repression against the poor who commit crimes out of frustration with their lives includes stepped-up use of the death penalty in the South, and higher national rates of incarceration in jails and prisons exist than anywhere but South Africa and the Soviet Union; and

WHEREAS there is a need in our criminal justice system for truth in sentencing, for more uniformity of sentencing for similar offenders, and generally for more rationality in the criminal justice process; and

WHEREAS the Governor of Massachusetts has introduced H.5009, Presumptive Sentencing, into the Massachusetts General Court; and

WHEREAS H.5009 has the following goals, provisions, and problems:

1. It would revise the criminal code of Massachusetts, which has over 300 years of history; a worthwhile project, but one not to be undertaken in haste.
2. It would standardize criminal justice sentencing for violent crimes against persons by requiring judges to sentence within narrow guidelines, or explain fully why they sentenced outside those guidelines. This has merits, but as presently constructed, H.5009 would increase time served to the point that the Department of Corrections estimates that as many as 2,000 beds will have to be added to our already totally overcrowded Massachusetts prisons.
3. All studies show that, when prisons are built, they are filled, and it is inconceivable that this bill, if passed, would not cause us to build a major new prison in Massachusetts. Recent average national figures show that $14,000 per year will be required to maintain each new prisoner. And prison building costs are staggering. Average Massachusetts Department of Corrections projections show that we are already planning to spend up to $98,000 per bed for prison space during the period 1978-88. The use of this Massachusetts taxpayers' money must be considered against its possible alternative uses for more positive concerns. Prisons are generally considered to be failures at changing the lives of offenders, while alternatives to incarceration have higher success rates.
4. H.5009 will not deal with serious criminal justice problems in Massachusetts, such as the fact that women prisoners in Hampden and Berkshire counties are held for trial in Framingham, making contact with attorneys and family extremely difficult, if not impossible. The 1980 census showed that, in this Commonwealth, 1.3 White women per 100,000 were in jail or prison, while 23.2 Black women per 100,000 were incarcerated; the rate for all Whites was 39.0 and for all Blacks was 529.2/100,000, and more than one Black male in 100 was in jail or prison in Massachusetts in 1980.
5. H.5009 includes a provision for the prosecuting attorney to appeal the sentence if the judge sets it below the sentencing guidelines, a possibility recently approved by the U.S. Supreme Court and never before allowed in the history of our country; and

Minutes

WHEREAS in Massachusetts the crime rate has declined every year since 1980, while the rate of incarceration has increased, calling us as Christians into questions about our treatment of the less fortunate, and H.5009 would only exacerbate this situation; and

WHEREAS more humane sentencing has been repeatedly called for in our church, most recently by General Synod XIV in 1983 and by the 182nd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference in 1981; with these declarations, we have joined hands with Christians of many denominations at home and internationally who have called for mercy and humanity in criminal justice practices.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ opposes H.5009, Presumptive Sentencing, or any other bill in the Massachusetts General Court that would limit individualized treatment of criminal offenders and result in longer periods of incarceration for more persons without improving our prison facilities and strengthening our efforts at rehabilitation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to Governor Michael Dukakis, to Senate President William Bulger, to House Speaker George Keverian, and to Senator Paul Harold and Representative Sal DiMasi, Chairpersons of the Senate and House Criminal Justice Committees; and to Senator Patricia McGovern and Representative Richard Voke, Chairpersons of the Senate and House Ways and Means Committees, and to principal Massachusetts media.

• Appendix J - RESOLUTION ON THE MIDDLE EAST

WHEREAS the Church of Jesus Christ is called to preach release to the oppressed and bring a message of reconciliation to all those in the midst of conflicting interest; and

WHEREAS the Middle East Arms race constitutes a major threat to regional and world peace; and

WHEREAS the 182nd Annual Meeting of the MACUCC in 1981 voted, "We wish to develop a spirit of unity and mutual understanding with the Church of Jesus Christ in the Middle East;" and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 186th annual meeting of the MACUCC calls upon the appropriate national instrumentalities of the UCC and the Council for Mission Outreach and Social Responsibility of the Massachusetts Conference to provide resources for local church study and action related to the Middle East; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to President Reagan, Secretary of State Schultz and the Massachusetts Congressional delegation.

• Appendix K - RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF THE UFW TABLE GRAPE BOYCOTT

In order to be faithful to the scriptural mandate to establish justice and care for the poor, the National Farm Worker Ministry has endeavored for 64 years to improve the living and working conditions of farm workers, and, since the grape strike of 1965, has supported the efforts of the United Farm Workers of America to gain collective bargaining contracts that secure workers' rights.

WHEREAS the California Agricultural Labor Relations Act was passed in 1975 largely because of the pressure of a nationwide boycott of grapes (according to the Harris poll, 17 million Americans participated), and the officials of the State of California are failing to protect the rights of farm workers, as required by the Agricultural Labor Relations Act of 1975; and

WHEREAS over $30 million in wages of over 8,000 grape pickers remains unpaid because of delays, up to eight years in length, and arbitrary action by the staff of the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and

WHEREAS 90% of the grape growers of California are evading the mandate of the law (some by such tactics as transferring ownership of land and re-emerging as different companies) and, in the summer of 1984, have ignored the United Farm Workers' call for collective bargaining; and

WHEREAS the United Farm Workers, under the leadership of Cesar Chavez, has called for a renewed international boycott of all non-union table grapes produced in California; and

Minutes

WHEREAS we of the religious community are convinced that a boycott is an effective, non-violent method by which the workers' rights can be re-established;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ hereby endorses the United Farm Workers' boycott of all non-union California table grapes and calls upon its members and all persons concerned with justice not to buy non-union table grapes.
